Restrictions and Requirements: This study trip will demand more of the traveler than the ordinary tourist trip, both in terms of daily schedule and physical exertion. Our days will begin early and involve several hours of study and hiking. It is important that each traveler be capable of walking 6 to 9 miles a day, often up and down steep hills, and almost certainly in warm to hot weather. Finally, remember that you must be in possession of a valid and unexpired passport [i.e., which does not expire within six months of the departure date].

Deadline Dates

☞ The full cost to be paid by Oct 1, 2022.

☞ Cancellations: full refund less $250 for pre-paid and administrative costs

Note: It is recommended that travelers consider purchasing accident/health insurance for the trip. If your health insurance does not adequately cover you when abroad, consider short-term policies that cover only the time you are in Israel; they are quite affordable, and they do provide thorough and accessible coverage. An American company which provides policies primarily for Christian workers is MissionaryHealth.net. Phone: (800) 647-4589; e-mail health@missionaryhealth.net; website: www.missionaryhealth.net. A fine Israeli provider is Chacoty Sasson General & Life Insurance Agency, www.chacoty.co.il. Click the American flag for English, then Options, then Insurance for Tourists; download, print and complete the application form and submit it by fax. Allow at least two weeks to accomplish this. Further, it is strongly recommended that you purchase Trip Cancellation Insurance. A close friend of Doug’s who offers this is Craig Dunning at <https://discipleshiptravel.com>; find the banner entitled “Need Travel Insurance” (right side of page), click and follow the prompts. Note: do not insure the land-cost, as that will be refunded to you if you are unable to go for any reason. You are wise to insure the cost of air passage, as the airlines are reluctant to refund that cost.

²The group will gather at the Gilgal Hotel in Tel Aviv on Sunday, December 11, 2022. However, if you would like to have a day to recoup, you are welcome to arrive a day (or more, for that matter) early. The hotel will be alerted that some travelers may choose to arrive early, but you must make those arrangements yourself. Contact the hotel manager, Itai Merone (not the corporate reservation office). The contact info is below

Address: 7 Nes-Ziona St. Tel Aviv 63904 Website: <http://www.hotelgilgal.com-israel.com> Itai’s e-Mail: itaym@Afi-Hotels.co.il
Hotel phone: +972 3 545-0000 // WhatsApp (Itai): – 972-5-44300055; Note: Mention that you are with the Bookman Study group.

The Gilgal Hotel is about a ten-minute walk from a very nice Mediterranean beach. The price of a regular room for Sunday night (the 1st night of our tour) is built into the cost of the trip; if you choose to arrive early, you will need to cover the charge for the additional night(s).

³Arrival in Israel on Sunday will mean departing the US on Saturday. Select any carrier, but be careful to schedule your arrival sometime on (or before) Sunday, December 11. The earlier you arrive, the more time you will have to gather yourself before we start out early Monday morning.

⁴ Getting from the airport to the first night’s hotel. The least complicated and most dependable way of getting from the airport to the Gilgal Hotel in Tel Aviv is simply to take a taxi. There are shuttle services, but they are no cheaper (in my experience) and they involve a level of complexity and uncertainty (e.g., in case of flight delays) which are simply not worth the effort. To secure a taxi could hardly be easier or more dependable. After passing customs and picking up your luggage, proceed through the Greeters Hall and exit at Gate #3; turn left at the sidewalk, find the dispatcher’s station and ask for a taxi to the Gilgal Hotel in Tel Aviv. (Have the address available.)

NOTE: Taxi drivers are required by law to offer to use the meter on all trips. If you know the accepted rates, it is acceptable to set a price beforehand. For long trips, the driver must charge passengers according to the Ministry of Transport price list posted in all taxis. Further, a 25% surcharge for night trips is in effect from 9:01pm – 5:29am (from 4pm on Fridays & holiday eves). Trips out of Ben Gurion Airport are charged an additional NIS 5.00, and passengers pay approximately NIS 3.00 for each suitcase.

Please do not be intimidated by this, as it is very simple and entirely dependable. Further, note that the cost of getting to the hotel is not covered in the cost of the trip, so you will have to pay for this yourself. The trip has been arranged in this way in order to provide maximum flexibility for the traveler, and to keep your cost at a minimum.

⁵We will regularly gather in the evenings to review the day’s travels and learning and to preview the region we will be exploring the next day.

⁶One important stop not on our itinerary is Yad Vashem, the Holocaust Memorial in West Jerusalem. This would be a good day to take the commuter tram to the museum and spend 2 or 3 hours thinking through the exhibits.

⁷Please schedule your departure as close to midnight as possible on Wed night (Dec 21), or as early as possible on Thursday (Dec 22).

Several airlines have departures close to midnight, which works best as it gives us a full day on Wednesday, saves us paying for a room on Wednesday evening. Your room will possibly be available to you as late as you need it on that Wednesday; we’ll settle this when we are there. Once we know the various departure times, we will work to arrange either taxis and/or a bus to get us to the airport in plenty of time for the various departure times. Again, plan to cover the cost of the trip from Jerusalem to the airport, as that is not covered in the cost of the trip.
