

Minister of Youth and Children

We are seeking a Spirit filled follower of Jesus Christ with a clear understanding of a personal call to ministry for the position of Full-time Minister of Youth and Children. This person will be responsible for leading the church to develop a comprehensive Youth and Children's Ministry. This will be done in consultation with other staff members and church program organizations concerning activities, policies and procedures that relate to their area of responsibility.

Mission Statement

Christ Our Message, Souls Our Mission

Vision Statement

At Cool Springs we believe that our Biblical mandate is to make disciples as we glorify God with our lives. That is why we desire that every person become a disciple of Christ, and anyone who is a part of Cool Springs be a part because they believe this is a place that they can grow in their faith and relationship with Christ.

Opportunity

We believe we are poised to make a great impact for God's Kingdom in Sanford as the area is experiencing increased growth with multiple apartment complexes and new neighborhoods being built with a projected 1,000 families moving within a few miles of our campus. The person in this position will be a big part of reaching out to these families with the gospel.
